

Despo Senekki

Despo Senekki was born in Nicosia in 1984. She graduated from the Secretarial Studies Department of the European University Cyprus with academic distinctions and honors.

She is a holder of Text Production Diploma in both Greek and English language (with distinction, Level 2) and a holder of Book Keeping Diploma (LCCI Intermediate).

She is highly proficient in Greek and English languages and has advanced computer skills, including working with Microsoft Office.

She has attended professional seminars in Office Management & Administration and in Shorthand.

She started working at the Cyprus Employers & Industrialists Federation (OEB) in 2009 as a Secretary, a position she holds until today.