

Marcos Kallis

Marcos Kallis graduated from the English School, Nicosia and after his military service he went for studies to the United Kingdom. He graduated from Keele University in 2001 with a Bachelor of Science, dual honours in: Management Science & Computer Science.

He has worked for three years in the business and IT services sector, while attending classes for a Master in Business Administration (MBA) at the Cyprus International Institute of Management (CIIM).

Marcos is working for the Cyprus Employers & Industrialists Federation (OEB) since 2005. Through his experience as an Officer in the Management Development and Business Development & Economy Departments and his contact with Cypriot businesses, he has worked in providing business services to enterprises and Business Associations - Members of OEB, organisation of conferences, training seminars and events, participation in surveys, representation of OEB in councils, committees and bodies, and promotion of OEB's activities in the press and the internet.