

Marina Kafourou Cosma

Marina Kafourou Cosma holds a bachelor's degree in Communications and Master's with honors in "Media and Communications" from the University of Nicosia.

Marina began her career as a journalist in the news bulletin of ANT1 television. She then moved on to become a member of the advertising agency DeLeMa McCann Cyprus, where she worked for four years as a Public Relations Executive, being responsible for the creation and implementation of PR campaigns and strategies for established organizations.

In 2009, Marina moved to the PR department of the N.K.Shacolas Group where she was in charge for the internal and external communications of the President of the Group.

Marina is married and a mother of two children. She lived with her family in Engomi, Nicosia.