

Elena Gregoriou

Elena Gregoriou was born in 1993 in Larnaca. She graduated from Latsia High School with Excellence. She is a graduate of the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering of the University of Cyprus. Subsequently, she continued her studies at the University of Cyprus, in the Faculty of Engineering attending the Master Degree course in «Energy Technologies and Sustainable Design».

She started her professional career as Teaching Assistant at the University of Cyprus and was later employed in the private sector at an automation services company.

She has joined the workforce of OEB from May 2018.