About the UNIC MBA

Building on its brand equity as a resource and on its people's capabilities, the UNIC MBA creates its distinctive competencies offering superior value to its students through the differentiation competitive advantage strategy. We simply do the best at what we do, creating a competitive advantage as a "Differentiator" in Higher Education.

Earning a graduate degree such as an MBA takes hard work and dedication, but the end result is worth it.

- It adds instant credibility to your CV
- It leads to higher compensation and,
- Better career opportunities
- It provides you access to a business network
- Equips you with the necessary knowledge to start your own company

'42 CEOs of the Fortune top 100 companies hold an MBA Degree'* (the completeuniversityguide.co.uk)

Dedicating the time and effort to earn an MBA degree is impressive in its own right. The knowledge and skills learned and acquired by the UNIC MBA are highly desirable and provide an edge over other job candidates. In what ways?

It allows you to:

- Acquire specialized skills
- Master advanced business administration topics
- Think critically and improve your oral and communication skills
- Fine tune your decision making and problem solving skills

As you work your way through the programme, your competitive edge is sure to get sharper with each course you complete. Students come into contact with different methods and ideas from around the world, and how they go about approaching business problems, in itself is a learning experience thus tasting firsthand the added value that international networking brings to the experience.

With an emphasis on developing a variety of soft and hard skills like the analytical reasoning, networking, leadership and communication, the UNIC MBA degree draws on an array of proficiencies to ensure you can rise to the top of your chosen profession.
