

Mrs Anthi Charalambous is a Chemical Engineer, graduated of the National Technical University of Athens (NTUA), with specialization in Environmental Engineering (MSc), holds a Masters in Business Administration (MBA) and P.Dip. in Renewable Energy and Energy Management. At the beginning of her career (1997) she worked abroad in environmental projects, environmental impact assessment studies, in the management and processing of liquid and solid wastes and in designing biomass to energy plants. In 2001 he started working in the field of renewable energy and energy saving in the Cyprus Institute of Energy and in 2004 she was appointed as Energy Attaché, in the Permanent Representation of Cyprus to the EU in Brussels. In 2007 she joined the European Commission's Directorate-General for Energy (DG ENER) at renewable energy technologies Unit. For the period 2009 – 2015 she was the Director of the Cyprus Energy Agency. From this positions besides the establishment, operation and growth of the Cyprus Energy Agency, she managed 24 projects on RES and Energy Efficiency and secured 2,8 mil euros. She participated in many conferences in Cyprus and abroad as invited speaker and she has released several publications. She was the Secretary of the Cyprus Association of Chemical Engineers for the period 2010-2012 and a member of the Committee on Energy Policy in the Scientific and Technical Chamber of Cyprus (ETEK) for the period 2009-2014. She joined the workforce of OEB in October 2016 as the Head of Energy & Environment Division.