

Natasa Lachana

Natasa Lachana was born in Larnaca and graduated from Makarios III Lyceum. She attended undergraduate studies at the faculty of Law at Leeds Beckett University in the United Kingdom. Upon her return to Cyprus, she was employed in the tourism sector as an administrator until March 2013.

Subsequently she worked for a major law firm in Larnaca, a position which she held for 10 years. As a legal administrator, she was managing filings in courts for all levels and public authorities and preparation of pleadings, all contributing to building her knowledge and experience in the Judicial and Corporate Departments.

In January 2023, she was hired by the Cyprus Employers and Industrialists Federation (OEB) as an Officer in the Business Development Department where she deals with the provision of services and information to businesses and professional Associations of OEB, the organization of events, conventions and representation of OEB in various committees and bodies.
