

Kyriaki Kyriakou

Kyriaki Kyriakou obtained her BA in Political Sciences from the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki and her MSc in Bioeconomy, Circular Economy and Sustainable Development from the University of Piraeus. She also holds a Professional Course Certificate from the Vocational Training and Lifelong Learning Center of the Athens University of Economics and Business entitled: "Implementing the sustainable transition: Agenda 2030, the Paris Agreement on Climate Change and the European Green Deal".

After her return to Cyprus, she worked for one year at the Federation of Environmental Organisations in Cyprus as a Scientific & Administrative Officer. In December 2023, she was hired as an Officer in the Business Development Department of the Cyprus Employers and Industrialists Federation (OEB).

Her main duties are the provision of advisory services in the policy making of Associations. In addition, she deals with the organization of conferences, events and represents OEB in various committees and bodies.