

Curriculum Vitae
ALEXANDROS PAPADOPOULOS

Alexandros Papadopoulos was born in Nicosia in 1990. He graduated from Ethnomartyr Kyprianos Lyceum and, after completing his military service, moved to the United Kingdom, where he obtained an LLB Law degree from Leeds Beckett University. He worked in various legal sectors while simultaneously completing a Master's degree in Business Administration (MBA) at the European University Cyprus. He then pursued a career in the business sector.

In January 2022, he was hired as an Officer in the Business Development and Economy Department of the Federation of Employers and Industrialists (OEB).

His professional activities mainly involve providing advisory services to businesses and professional associations. Additionally, he is engaged in business information dissemination, conference and event organization, and representing OEB in various committees and bodies.

-----