

Curriculum Vitae
NATASA LACHANA

Natasa Lachana was born in Larnaca and graduated from Makarios III Lyceum. She then pursued undergraduate studies in Law at Leeds Beckett University in the United Kingdom.

Upon her return to Cyprus, she worked in the tourism sector until March 2013. She was subsequently employed by one of the largest law firms in Larnaca, a position she held for 10 years, where she was responsible for all types of court filings across all levels of the judiciary and with public authorities, as well as the drafting and preparation of legal documents. Through this role, she gained experience and knowledge in both the Litigation and Corporate departments.

In January 2023, she joined the Employers and Industrialists Federation (OEB) as an Officer in the Business Development Department, where she is involved in providing services and information to businesses and OEB's professional associations, organizing events and conferences, and representing OEB in various committees and bodies.
