

Curriculum Vitae
NTIA STYLIANOU

Ntia Stylianou was born in Larnaca in 1977. She is a graduate of Agios Georgios High School in Larnaca. Her professional experience as a Training Programs Coordinator was initiated in 2004.

In January 2022, she was hired as an Officer in the Research, Training, and European Programs Department at the Cyprus Employers & Industrialists Federation (OEB).

Today, she holds the position of Officer at the Human Resources Department of OEB.

Ntia holds a pivotal role within the Department, with extensive responsibilities in the planning, coordination, and implementation of training programmes, including both enterprise and sectoral-specific tailored training solutions. She has significant experience in designing and managing subsidised training initiatives, developing training content, ensuring compliance with the Human Resource Development Authority (HRDA), and maintaining the department's ISO 9001:2015 certification. She contributes to the full training lifecycle—from needs assessment and budgeting to participant support and programme evaluation—ensuring high-quality, demand-driven vocational education aligned with labour market needs.
